

The Team

Guy Kirkham

Guy is a technical practice manager at MTA and has over 25 years' experience in various types of litigation to include all aspects of driving law. Guy has been at MTA Solicitors since 2009.

Guy has significant experience in the field of driving law and is able to represent clients with offences relating to speeding, driving or permitting someone to drive without insurance, driving without a licence, road traffic accident offences, contravening traffic signals, driving whilst under the influence, using mobile phones whilst driving and "totting-up" offences.

Anna Harvey

Anna is a senior paralegal and has over 6 years' experience in motor claims litigation, 4 of which have been at MTA Solicitors.

Anna has experience in all aspects of driving offence cases to include driving without insurance, driving whilst disqualified, speeding, contravening traffic signals, driving whilst under the influence and "totting-up" offences.

Joanne Bloyce

Joanne is a senior paralegal and has over 9 years' experience in the motor industry.

Joanne has experience in all aspects of driving offence cases to include driving without insurance, driving whilst disqualified, speeding, contravening traffic signals, driving whilst under the influence and "totting-up" offences.